

Analytical Essay Outline Template

Title: [Insert Your Working Title Here]

I. INTRODUCTION (10-15% of total word count)

- A. Hook: [Attention-grabbing opening: a provocative question, a striking quote, or a surprising fact related to your topic.]
 - B. Context: [Provide 2-3 sentences of essential background. Introduce the text, author, or subject you are analyzing.]
 - C. Thesis Statement: [Your main analytical claim. State clearly what you intend to prove in this essay.]
-

II. BODY PARAGRAPH 1 (25-30% of total word count)

- A. Topic Sentence (T): [State the first analytical point that supports your thesis.]
 - B. Evidence #1 (E): [Insert a quote, specific example, or data point here. Include the citation/page number.]
 - C. Analysis (A): [Explain HOW this evidence proves your topic sentence and WHY it matters to the overall argument.]
 - D. Evidence #2 (E): [Insert a second piece of supporting evidence for this same point.]
 - E. Analysis (A): [Interpret this second piece of evidence and explain its significance.]
 - F. Link (L): [Summarize the paragraph's main point and connect it back to your thesis or transition to Paragraph 2.]
-

III. BODY PARAGRAPH 2 (25-30% of total word count)

- A. Topic Sentence (T): [State the second analytical point that supports your thesis.]
 - B. Evidence #1 (E): [Insert quote or example with citation.]
 - C. Analysis (A): [Explain the "How" and "Why" of this evidence.]
 - D. Evidence #2 (E): [Insert additional quote or example.]
 - E. Analysis (A): [Interpret the evidence and relate it back to the paragraph's claim.]
 - F. Link (L): [Bridge this idea to the next paragraph.]
-

IV. BODY PARAGRAPH 3 (25-30% of total word count)

- A. Topic Sentence (T): [State the third analytical point that supports your thesis.]
 - B. Evidence #1 (E): [Insert quote or example with citation.]
 - C. Analysis (A): [Explain the "How" and "Why" of this evidence.]
 - D. Evidence #2 (E): [Insert additional quote or example.]
 - E. Analysis (A): [Interpret the evidence.]
 - F. Link (L): [Final connection to the thesis before moving to the conclusion.]
-

V. CONCLUSION (10-15% of total word count)

- A. Restate Thesis: [Rephrase your main claim in fresh language. Do not copy and paste it from the introduction.]
 - B. Synthesis: [Briefly show how your three main body points work together to support your conclusion.]
 - C. Broader Significance: [Explain why this analysis matters in a larger context (e.g., its impact on society, literature, or history).]
 - D. Final Thought: [End with a memorable closing insight or a "call to action" for the reader's thoughts.]
-

Quick Structure Checklist

- ☐ Is my Analysis at least twice as long as my Evidence?
- ☐ Does every Topic Sentence connect back to my Thesis?
- ☐ Have I included Citations for every piece of evidence?
- ☐ Did I avoid adding New Information in the conclusion?

