

Elementary Book Report Sample – Fiction

Title: Charlotte's Web

Author: E.B. White

Genre: Fiction

Summary: This story follows a pig named Wilbur and his friendship with a spider named Charlotte. Charlotte writes words in her web to save Wilbur's life. The book teaches kindness, bravery, and the importance of friendship.

Main Characters:

- Wilbur: A kind, worried pig
- Charlotte: A smart and caring spider
- Fern: A girl who saves Wilbur

Favorite Part: My favorite part was when Charlotte's web said "Some Pig" because it showed how much she cared about Wilbur.

Rating: ★★★★★

Elementary Book Report Sample – Nonfiction

Title: National Geographic Kids: Penguins

Author: Anne Schreiber

Genre: Nonfiction

Summary: This book teaches facts about penguins, including where they live, what they eat, and how they care for their babies. It uses real photographs and simple explanations.

Key Facts Learned:

- Penguins cannot fly but are great swimmers
- They live in very cold places like Antarctica
- Penguin parents take turns caring for the egg

Favorite Part: I liked learning how penguins slide on their bellies—it looks fun and helps them move fast.
