

Descriptive Essay Example Analysis Worksheet

Purpose:

Use this worksheet to actively study descriptive essay examples. Identify techniques, note patterns, and practice replicating effective strategies in your own writing.

Essay Information

- Title of Example Essay: _____
 - Author (if known): _____
 - Subject Type: (Person / Place / Experience / Object) _____
 - Education Level: (Middle School / High School / College) _____
-

1. Dominant Impression

- What is the central feeling or mood of the essay?

 - Which sentences or details reinforce this impression?

-

2. Sensory Details

Sense Example from Text Notes on Effectiveness

Sight

Sound

Smell

Taste

Touch

3. Show vs. Tell

- Identify a “telling” statement (stated fact or quality):

- Rewrite as “showing” using concrete sensory details:

4. Figurative Language

Type	Example from Text	Effect on Reader
Simile
Metaphor
Personification
Other

5. Organization & Structure

- What organizational method is used? (e.g., spatial, chronological, thematic)

- How does this structure guide the reader?

6. Strengths

- What techniques worked particularly well?

7. Areas for Improvement

- Could anything be enhanced for clarity, detail, or impact?

8. Replication Ideas

- Which techniques can you use in your own essay?
-
-

Instructions for Students:

1. Choose an essay example from the collection.
2. Fill in each section of this worksheet while reading carefully.
3. Focus on noticing patterns, specific language choices, and techniques that create vivid imagery.
4. Use observations to plan and draft your own descriptive essay.

